MUSIC CAMP FOR CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES CELEBRATES 10 YEARS OF NURTURING HIDDEN TALENTS

Wexford/Bradford Woods, PA (July 6, 2009) – The Woodlands Foundation is celebrating the 10th anniversary of its “Notes from the Heart” music camp by hosting several very special performances by some of Pittsburgh’s biggest musical talents. The camp, for children ages 8-18 with disability or chronic illness, will be held July 12 – 17, 2009, and boasts a stellar line-up of world-class musicians, conductors and artists who volunteer their time to perform and teach the children to sing, appreciate music, compose musical scores and play instruments. The public is invited and welcome to attend the following live performances:

Tuesday, July 14, at 7:00 p.m. Pittsburgh Opera Improv

Wednesday, July 15, 7:00 p.m. Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra Winds performing Peter and the Wolf

Thursday, July 16, 4:30 p.m. Lilly Abreu and Salsamba

Thursday, July 16, 8:00 p.m. Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra Concertmaster, Andrés Cárdenes

Friday, July 17, 7:00 p.m. “Bringing Out the Stars” outdoor concert preformed by the music camp participants

The Woodlands is a nonprofit organization dedicated to enriching the lives of people with disability and chronic illness. Programs include year-round retreats, summer camps, conferences and various other enrichment activities for people with special needs and the organizations that serve them. With its adaptive and accessible facilities, Woodlands programs enable participants to experience social, cultural, environmental, recreational and spiritual growth. The profound power of the Woodlands is its ability to transform lives.
